THE BAND

Formed in 2024, Father Pine brings together six experienced musicians with a shared passion for the timeless sounds of classic rock. Combining seasoned musicianship with rich vocal harmonies, the band delivers the sound, spirit, and energy of the music that has stood the test of time.

Drawing from the music of the 1960s, 1970s, and 1980s, Father Pine delivers a diverse mix of classic rock favorites, Southern rock, Americana, and blues. Their repertoire celebrates the artists and songs that helped define generations of rock music, bringing familiar favorites and crowd-pleasing performances to every stage.

While primarily a cover band, Father Pine also incorporates original material into their performances, adding their own creative voice to a sound rooted in the traditions of classic rock.

Whether performing at clubs, breweries, festivals, private events, or wedding celebrations, Father Pine brings seasoned musicianship and a genuine appreciation for great rock and roll.
